FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the "Industrial Home for Girls," established in Philadelphia, _____ dollars.

The Committee to receive applications for the admission of Girls into the "Home," or from persons wanting Girls, meet at the "Home" every Tuesday morning, at 10½ o'clock.

Citizens can visit the Institution every day but Saturday and Sunday. The "Industrial Home for Girls," 762 South Tenth Street.

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

FOR twenty-two years the Industrial Home has carried on its quiet work, and each year there is encouragement for its further prosecution. In the past twelve months this has been especially the case—an unusual number of former inmates having been heard from, all of them now respectable members of society.

The object of this institution having been so frequently presented, it may seem unnecessary to enter into detail; but, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with its workings, it may be well to state that neglected and destitute girls, from twelve to eighteen years of age, are here afforded a home in the true sense of the word, care being taken to give them moral and religious instruction, as well as a thorough knowledge of household work and sewing.

The sewing department, still under the efficient management of Mrs. McDowell, the Assistant Matron, is an important feature in the institution. The girls are taught to make and mend all their clothing, and house linen; and no outside aid has been required to complete the necessary sewing during the year.

The girls are under daily instruction in the school-room, where they are making steady progress in the rudiments of a good English education.

During the year twenty-two new girls have been admitted; twenty-seven placed out in families, five of whom are again in the Home, having returned for various causes; fourteen have been given up to relatives, six of whom have been re-admitted; two have been sent to the House of Refuge, and one has been transferred to the Training School for Feeble-minded Children. There are at present twenty-five children in the Home, the greatest number at any one time having been thirty-four.

In April the Managers were obliged to hold a second donation day, and met, as on the first occasion, with a generous response, for which they would tender their acknowledgments to all who aided them by contributions of money or useful articles.

In last year's Report it was mentioned that the income of the Home had been much reduced owing to the general financial depression, and that many subscriptions had been entirely withdrawn, and this has also been the case this year, as the amount received from subscriptions and donations is $410 less than in 1877. Hence there has been much embarrassment in meeting the necessary expenses of the Home; and it will be seen from the Treasurer's Report that $212.12 was borrowed for this purpose from the Mortgage Fund.

Special contributions from the Managers furnished the children with their usual entertainment on Christmas Eve and their dinner on Christmas Day.

During the summer they again enjoyed a free trip to Atlantic City, tendered them by the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company, in connection with the inmates of the Southern Home; and the kindness of one of the Managers enabled them to visit the Zoological Gardens.

The Managers are indebted to the Attending Physicians for their prompt response whenever called upon, but are happy to state that, with the blessing of a kind Providence, the general health of the family has been excellent throughout the year.

It is with gratitude, none the less sincere because of its yearly repetition, that the Managers wish to acknowledge the kindness of those who have, in any way, aided them in their work; and in this connection they wish to mention the services of Rev. Mr. Emerson, who gave religious instruction to the girls every week during the summer, while the church which they usually attend was closed for repairs; and the kindness of Messrs. Allen, Lane & Scott, who have so generously printed their Report, for the fourth time, free of charge.

EXTRACT FROM THE CHARTER.

(Obtained from the Legislature in 1859.)

SECTION 6. That the said Trustees shall have power to receive and to retain under their control, all such poor girls, over the age of twelve years, as may be brought to the said institution, for the purpose of being received into the same, by the father of such children, if he be living, or if he be dead, by the mother of said children; also, such orphan girls and all such other girls as may be neglected or deserted by their parents or their surviving parent, who shall be brought to them for the purpose aforesaid; subject, nevertheless, in these last-mentioned cases, to the approval of the judge of a court of record for the city and county of Philadelphia aforesaid, or any other president judge of the courts of this Commonwealth; and the said girls, when so received, to detain, maintain, educate, and control, until proper persons can be found who may be willing to receive them as apprentices to some useful art, trade, calling, or employment; and thereupon the said Trustees, or a committee of their board appointed for that purpose, shall have power, with the assent of any alderman or judge of a court of record of the said city or county, as aforesaid, to bind by indenture, either in or out of the Commonwealth aforesaid, the said girls, or any of them, as apprentices as aforesaid, until the age of eighteen years; stipulating and agreeing, nevertheless, on behalf of the child in every such indenture, that the master or mistress shall provide meat, medicine, clothing, lodging, instruction, and all other things necessary, usual, or proper for the comfort and support of the children to be bound, for their well-being and advancement in life; which indentures, so made, shall be of full force and effect for all and singular the purposes therein specified as aforesaid.
